The parties agree as follows:

1. Purchaser acknowledgements: If a Purchaser is a consumer under the Australian Consumer Law (under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth)) (“Australian Consumer Law”), the Purchaser has certain non-excludable rights, including that goods are of an acceptable quality. Nothing in this Contract excludes or restricts any rights a Purchaser has under the Australian Consumer Law. Subject to this, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that:
 - a. It has inspected, or has been given a reasonable opportunity to inspect, the Equipment (at its own risk) and has satisfied itself as to its condition.
 - b. It will purchase the Equipment on an “as is, where is, with all faults” basis.
 - c. No warranty, guarantee or representation is given by the Vendor or its Agent as to the condition of the Equipment or to any matter that may affect its future use.
 - d. It is the Purchaser’s responsibility, prior to commissioning or otherwise using the Equipment to:
 - i. carry out a risk assessment on the Equipment to identify safety hazards and then take appropriate remedial action; and
 - ii. take steps to ensure that the Equipment meets relevant certification requirements and Australian standards.
 - e. The Vendor and its Agent will not be liable to the Purchaser or any other person for any losses, liabilities, damage, claims or costs arising out of or in connection with the Purchaser’s failure to comply clause 1(d).
 - f. While every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the descriptions of the Equipment, the Vendor and its Agent cannot warrant they are correct. The Equipment is not sold or deemed to be sold by brochure or advertisement descriptions (including descriptions set out on the Agent’s website, www.martinauctions.com.au)
2. Transaction: On the Completion Date, the Vendor will sell, and the Purchaser must buy, the Equipment on the terms set out in this Contract.
3. Purchase Price: The Purchaser must pay the Purchase Price to the Agent by the Completion Date in the manner set out on the cover page.
4. Passing of risk and title: Until the full payment of the Purchase Price has been received and cleared by the Agent, all title, risk and property in the Equipment will not pass to the Purchaser. The date on which all title, risk and property in the Equipment passes from the Vendor to the Purchaser under this clause is the “Transfer Date”. The Purchaser agrees to maintain appropriate levels of insurance on the Equipment throughout the period during which it bears the risk of loss under this clause.
5. Security Interest: The Purchaser agrees and acknowledges that:
 - a. Subject to clause 5(b) and (c), before, on and after the Transfer Date, the Equipment may be subject to a Security Interest.
 - b. If a Security Interest has been granted by the Vendor, then the Vendor will procure the relevant secured party to release that Security Interest (“Release”).
 - c. If the Security Interest granted by the Vendor is registered on the Personal Property Securities Register (“PPSR”) established under the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth) (“PPSA”) and if that registration specifically describes the Equipment (in whole or part), then the Vendor will procure the relevant secured party to register a financing change statement in respect of the Equipment to reflect the Release within the time periods required under the PPSA (or such other period as agreed between the parties).
 - d. Prior to entering into the Contract, it has made its own enquires and investigations (including PPSR searches) at its own cost, in relation to any Security Interests.
 - e. “Security Interest” means any security interest (including a “security interest” as defined under the PPSA) held by a secured party in respect of the Equipment.

 - a. the Vendor may retain any Deposit paid and/or any other monies paid by the Purchaser under this Contract;

7. Limitation of liability:
 - a. If the Purchaser is a consumer under the Australian Consumer Law, the Purchaser has certain non-excludable rights. Nothing in this Contract excludes or restricts any rights a Purchaser has under the Australian Consumer Law. Further, nothing in this Contract excludes, restricts or modifies any

- condition, warranty, right or liability implied in this Contract or protected by law to the extent that such exclusion, restriction or modification would render this Contract or any provision of this Contract void, illegal or unenforceable.
- b. Subject to clause 7(a), any condition, warranty, representations, right or liability which would otherwise be implied in this Contract or protected by law is excluded.
 - c. Subject to clause 7(a), the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that:

 - ii. at no time prior to the purchase of the Equipment has it relied on the skill or judgment of the Vendor or its Agent and that it would be unreasonable for it to rely on any such skill or judgment; and
